The Mount Mercy Mustangs got off to a slow start in the Heart of America Conference softball tournament at Busse Field Wednesday morning, but they rebounded nicely Wednesday night to stay alive.

Mount Mercy lost to Culver-Stockton, 8-0, in the first game of the tournament Wednesday morning in just five innings, but the Mustangs bounced back with a 2-0 victory over William Penn in the losers bracket on a three-hit shutout by Jayna Witzany.

Mount Mercy (31-21) will face Grand View or Central Methodist in an elimination game Thursday at 7:30 p.m.

Jess Heick went 2-for-3 for the Mustangs in the 2-0 victory over William Penn. Payton Bruner collected a double and an RBI.

Olivia Brees of Baker pitched a perfect game with 14 strikeouts in a 5-0 victory over William Penn in the first round.
