

Mustangs split matches in Chicago

Written by Metro Sports Report
Sunday, 01 September 2019 07:04 -

CHICAGO - Gabi Delsing made 39 digs Saturday as the Mount Mercy women's volleyball team split two matches at a tournament in Chicago.

Delsing had 21 digs as the Mustangs topped St. Francis (Ill.), 25-21, 22-25, 27-25, 25-20, in a tight match. She added 18 digs in a setback to St. Xavier (Ill.), 25-13, 25-18, 22-25, 25-23.

Mount Mercy went 2-2 in the tournament and is 7-2 for the campaign.

Alyssa Weldon had 13 kills in the 3-1 victory over St. Francis and Mackenzie Murphy had 10. Kayla Daggett dished out 30 assists. Weldon had 19 digs. Maddie Bell and Abbi Tunis blocked three shots.

Bell had nine kills in the 3-1 loss to St. Xavier. Murphy and Weldon had seven kills. Daggett had 27 more assists. Weldon had 14 digs and Haley Stecklein 12. Bell blocked six shots.