

Sterling McIlravy of Kirkwood absolutely scorched the links at Hunters Ridge Golf Course Saturday.

McIlravy, a sophomore from Solon, fired a 6-under-par 66 to steer the third-ranked Eagles into first place at the Klocke Family Classic.

The final round of the 36-hole tournament will be played Sunday.

McIlravy owns a three-shot lead heading into the final 18 holes. Kirkwood leads Mount Mercy in the team standings by six shots, 284 to 290.

Kaleb Hagge led Mount Mercy with a 2-under 70 and is tied for third. Sam Lockhart, competing for the Kirkwood "B" team, also shot a 70.

The Mount Mercy women's golf team owns a 10-shot lead over St. Ambrose in its division. Allyson Wertz carded a 4-under 76 for the Mustangs and sits in second place, just one shot behind Karli Kerrigan of Grand View.
