

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. - Oguzhan Bozkan scored an unassisted goal in the 79th minute Saturday to snap a 1-1 tie and give the Mount Mercy men's soccer team a 2-1 victory over Evangel in a Heart of America Conference match in Missouri.

Evangel scored the first goal in the first half, but Rafael Passanha tied the match for the Mustangs in the 51st minute with an assist from Kevin Kastl.

Dane Lee made five saves for Mount Mercy.

The Mustangs raised their records to 5-2-1 overall and 2-0 in the conference. Evangel fell to 1-7 overall and 0-2 in the league.

The Mount Mercy women's soccer team lost its match to Evangel, 3-0. The Mustangs (1-6-1, 0-2) managed just one shot on goal against Evangel (5-3, 2-0).