

McMurrin resigns as Mustangs coach

Written by Metro Sports Report
Saturday, 02 November 2019 06:31 -

Raven McMurrin has resigned as the Mount Mercy women's soccer coach after 13 years, Athletic Director Paul Gavin announced Friday.

McMurrin compiled an 80-147-13 record with the Mustangs. Her 80 victories are the most in school history by a women's soccer coach.

The Mustangs struggled this season with a 1-15-1 overall record and 0-11 mark in the Heart of America Conference.

Gavin said the search for a new head coach will begin immediately.