FOREST CITY - The Mount Mercy women's basketball team scored its most points in four years Wednesday night with a 96-83 victory over Waldorf in Forest City.

The 96 points are the most for the Mustangs since a 105-30 victory over Lincoln Christian on Dec. 5, 2015.

Brianna Thomas led Mount Mercy (4-8) with 21 points. Sandra Mia netted 19 points and Sofia Popp had 16. Mia grabbed seven rebounds.

Ashley Schindele scored 23 points for Waldorf (2-8).

The Mustangs made 36 of 69 shots for 52.2 percent and scored 20, 28, 26 and 22 points per quarter and made 12 of 23 3-pointers. They outscored Waldorf, 28-11, in the second quarter for a 48-38 lead at halftime.

Mount Mercy will return to action Jan. 4 at Peru State.
