

South, Schlueter lead Mustang golfers

Written by Metro Sports Report
Monday, 06 April 2015 05:51 -

---

HOWEY-IN-THE-HILLS, Fla. - Jack South and Matt Schlueter turned in scores of 6-over-par 150 for 36 holes Sunday to lead Mount Mercy at the NAIA/Golfweek Spring Invitational at the Mission Inn Golf & Tennis Resort.

South had rounds of 75 and 75 while Schlueter had 18-hole scores of 74 and 76. They are tied for 23rd in the standings and are seven shots behind the leaders.

Jamie Warman of Oklahoma City and W. Greg Gentry of Webber set the pace Sunday at 1-under 143. The final round will be played Monday.

Coastal Georgia leads the tournament at 582. Mount Mercy is in 12th place at 616.

TEAM STANDINGS

1. Coastal Georgia 582, 2. Oklahoma City 588, 3. Grand View 596, 4. Webber 599, 5. (tie) Dalton State 600, Southeastern 600, 7. South Carolina Beaufort 601, 8. Johnson & Wales 602, 9. SCAD-Savannah 604, 10. Northwood 611, 12. Mount Mercy 616, 13. Johnson & Wales 621, 14. Warner 623.

MOUNT MERCY: Jack South 75-75=150, Matt Schlueter 74-76=150, Jamie Booth 77-78=155, Jacob Selander 85-79=164, Warren Bynoe 82-82=164.