

Bruyeres leads Mustangs to golf title

Written by Metro Sports Report
Tuesday, 16 April 2019 03:56 -

FORT DODGE - William Bruyeres of Mount Mercy captured medalist honors Monday and led the Mustangs to the team championship at the Iowa Central Spring Invitational at the Fort Dodge Country Club.

Bruyeres tore up the course Sunday with a 5-under-par 66 in the first round, but he still won the tournament by three strokes after carding a 5-over 76 in the final round Monday. He finished at even-par 142 for 36 holes.

Mount Mercy submitted a team score of 25-over 593 for a 10-shot victory over Southwestern Community College.

Thomas Schuhkraft of Mount Mercy tied for fourth place at 5-over 147. Philip Nelson and Kaleb Hagge tied for ninth at 10-over 152.

TEAM STANDINGS

1. Mount Mercy 593, 2. Southwestern 603, 3. DMACC 609, 4. Iowa Lakes 610, 5. NIACC 616, 6. Valley City State 623, 7. Northeast 625, 8. DMACC 'B' 633, 9. Viterbo 640, 10. Iowa Central 655, 11. Hawkeye 681.

MOUNT MERCY: 1. William Bruyeres 66-76=142, 4. Thomas Schuhkraft 74-73=147, 9. Philip Nelson 76-76=152, 9. Kaleb Hagge 76-76=152, 21. Nile Happel 77-78=155, 42. Jan Zupancic 76-87=163.