

Mount Mercy women take 2nd at Deere Run

Written by Metro Sports Report
Monday, 14 October 2019 05:33 -

SILVIS, Ill. - The Mount Mercy women's golf team placed second at the TPC Deere Run Invitational Sunday.

William Penn claimed the title at 701 for 36 holes, with the Mustangs finishing 16 shots back in second place at 717.

Kayla Stammer tied for fourth place in the individual standings for the Mustangs. Casey Noble finished seventh.

Brittany Evans of William Penn claimed medalist honors.

TEAM STANDINGS

1. William Penn 701, 2. Mount Mercy 717, 3. Oklahoma Wesleyan 724, 4. Viterbo 738, 5. St. Ambrose 785, 6. Iowa Lakes 786, 7. St. Francis (Ill.) 8-1, 8. William Penn 'B' 825, 9. Concordia (Wis.) 828, 10. Midland 859, 11. Peru State 986.

MOUNT MERCY - 4. Kayla Stammer 85-90=175, 7. Casey Noble 91-87=178, 11. Allyson Wertz 95-87=182, 11. Natalea Cook 91-91=182, 29. Valarie Davidson 95-100=195.