Francesca Frasca scored a pair of goals Tuesday as Culver-Stockton blanked Mount Mercy, 2-0, in a Heart of America Conference women's soccer match at the Plaster Athletic Complex.

The game was scoreless for more than 80 minutes before Frasca struck twice in two minutes. Her first goal came in the 82nd minute and her second happened in the 84th minute for the visitors.

Mount Mercy managed only three shots on goal and was blanked for the second straight contest.

The Mustangs fell to 5-4-2 overall and 2-3 in the conference. Culver-Stockton raised its records to 5-4-2 overall and 1-3-1 in the league.
