The Mount Mercy women's soccer team lost to Harris-Stowe State, 5-3, in a non-conference match Sunday at the Plaster Athletic Complex.

Keagan Ovenshire, Abby Estabrook and Holli Jones scored for the Mustangs, who fell to 1-2 for the season.

Harris-Stowe took a 2-0 lead in the first half before Ovenshire put the Mustangs on the board at the 33:28 mark with an assist from Carly Walker.

Harris-Stowe countered to make it 3-1 in the second half. Estabrook collected an unassisted goal to make it 3-2, but Johanna Wallstab scored twice to give Harris-Stowe a 5-2 cushion before Jones tallied late in the match.

Harris-Stowe raised its record to 1-0-1.
