WILLIAMSBURG - The Fairfax Stars swept a doubleheader from Williamsburg Sunday, 11-1 and 8-1, to clinch at least a tie for the Iowa Valley League title.

Fairfax raised its record to 14-2 and has a four-game lead over Red Top with four games left in the regular season.

Austin Czerwiec collected his seventh victory of the season with seven strikeouts in the 11-1 victory. Matt Berst, who just finished his all-state career at Kennedy, went 3-for-3 for Fairfax. Cody Williams had two doubles and scored three runs.

Ryan Arp and Cam Frazier had two hits for Williamsburg in the opener.

Jacob Henry had three hits and a double for Fairfax in the second game. Steve Jensen had two hits. Cody Bell was the winning pitcher.

NORWAY, WALFORD SPLIT

NORWAY - The Norway Bandits and Walford Hogs split a twinbill in Norway, with both games lasting eight innings.

Norway took the first game, 6-5, on a game-winning single by Carlo Rivera in the bottom of the eighth.

Norway scored four runs in the first inning to jump to an early lead, with the highlight a triple by Tony Salato.
