WILLIAMSBURG - Colby Carmichael tossed a two-hitter as the Norway Bandits trimmed the Williamsburg Red Sox, 4-2, in the first game of their Iowa Valley League doubleheader Sunday in Williamsburg.

Norway captured the second game, 12-5, to sweep the twinbill.

Carmichael was named the IVL Pitcher of the Week for his complete-game performance. JT Sole had a two-run single for Norway and Mitch Walser had an RBI base hit in the opener.

Tony Salato belted a three-run homer for the Bandits in the second game. It came during an eight-run outburst for Norway in the fourth inning to take command. Riley Braughton had a two-run homer for Norway.

Joe Anton, Ryan Arp and Nolan Arp had two hits for Williamsburg in the second game. The Arp brothers drove in two runs apiece.

WALFORD SWEEPS RED TOP

NORWAY - The Walford Hogs did some heavy hitting Sunday and swept both ends of their doubleheader with Red Top, 8-2 and 15-7.

Corbin Woods and Sam Mrstik belted home runs for Walford in the first game. Mitchell Boe, Logan Holtz and Woods had two hits and Boe drove in two runs.

Mitch Moser got the victory for Walford in the opener with three shutout innings in relief.
