The five teams in the Iowa Women's Softball League battled each other and battled the heat Sunday with some interesting results.

Three of the five games were shortened to five innings with the temperature in the mid-90's and another game ended in a scoreless tie.

Ironside Apparel and Hawkeye Convenience Stores battled to a 0-0 deadlock in the first game at Mount Mercy, with both sides flashing some stellar pitching and defense.

Hawkeye Convenience Stores blanked Emil's Hideaway, 8-0, in the middle game. And Emil's Hideaway turned around and topped Ironside Apparel, 7-1.

Metro Sports Report swept its doubleheader from Bosch Financial, 2-1 and 12-6, at Simpson College in Indianola.

IRONSIDE APPAREL 0, HAWKEYE CONVENIENCE STORES 0

Brooke Craig of UNI sparkled for Ironside Apparel for all seven innings of the scoreless duel. She allowed only five hits and struck out two batters.

Morgan Christner of Illinois State and Jenna Schwartzhoff of Clarke countered with a combined two-hitter for Hawkeye Convenience Stores. Christner tossed the first five innings and Schwartzhoff pitched the last two frames. Christner struck out four batters.

Hawkeye Convenience Stores had runners at second and third with one out in the bottom of the seventh, but Craig got the final two outs to preserve the deadlock.

The game was stopped after seven innings due to the heat.

HAWKEYE CONVENIENCE STORES 8, EMIL'S HIDEAWAY 0

Emily Ira of Western Illinois and Erin Drahozal of Upper Iowa combined on an eight-hit shutout for Hawkeye Convenience Stores in the 8-0 victory over Emil's Hideaway in Game 2 at Mount Mercy.

Ira pitched five innings and collected nine strikeouts. Drahozal tossed two scoreless frames to finish the victory.

Alyssa Wiebel went 2-for-3 with a double and two RBIs for Hawkeye Convenience Stores. Kylee Biedermann of Clarke had a two-run triple, Schwartzhoff contributed a two-run single and Ira had a run-scoring double.
