WALKER - A sensational catch by Morgan Lewis help Emil's Hideaway move into sole possession of first place in the Iowa Women's Softball League Sunday.

Lewis made a fantastic diving grab in right-center field with the bases loaded and two outs in the bottom of the last inning to keep the tying runs from scoring as Emil's trimmed the Metro Sports Report, 5-2, in the first game of their doubleheader.

Emil's rallied with three runs in the bottom of the last inning in Game 2 for a 3-2 triumph and the sweep.

Lewis, who will attend Eastern Illinois this year, raced from her position in center field to snare the blast by Liz VanManen of Jacksonville State.

Abby Carlin of Western Illinois and Emma Olejniczak from Iowa shared the pitching for Emil's in the 5-2 victory. Carlin and Olejniczak tossed three innings, allowing one run apiece.

Brie Tauber of Clarke went 2-for-3 with a double and scored twice for Emil's. Adara Opiola from UNI and Lewis had two hits.
