

Former J-Hawk Ryan Garman fires no-hitter

Written by Metro Sports Report

Tuesday, 12 April 2011 15:37 - Last Updated Tuesday, 12 April 2011 16:28

---

Former J-Hawk Ryan Garman fired a no-hitter pitching for Grand Valley State (Mich.) on April 3.

Garman struck out eight, walked two and hit two batters in the seven-inning contest. Grand Valley beat Ashland (Ohio), 7-0.

The no-hitter was the seventh in Grand Valley State history and the first for Garman, a junior playing his first season for the Lakers.

Garman ran his record to 4-1 Sunday (April 10) in a 5-3 win over Saginaw Valley State.

Grand Valley State (21-3) is ranked No. 3 in NCAA Division II.