Sam Meyers pitched six strong innings Tuesday night as the Xavier Saints topped Jefferson, 6-2, in a consolation game of the Vrbicek Metro Tournament at Ken Charipar Field.

The Saints scored four runs in the seventh inning to snap a 2-2 tie and secure the victory.

Meyers allowed two runs on six hits, with two strikeouts and two walks. Jack Lemke had two hits for Xavier (1-1).

Chris Haring and Tyler Unkel had two hits for Jefferson (0-2).

Xavier advanced to face Kennedy for fifth place in the tournament on Wednesday. Jefferson met Mount Vernon for seventh place.
