

Erin Kuba has signed a national letter-of-intent to continue her college softball career at Utah State.

Kuba, a Cedar Rapids Jefferson grad, hit .422 with 13 homers and 60 RBIs at Indian Hills Community College this season and was named the Regional Player of the Year. She also excels on defense at third base.

Utah State is an NCAA Division I program that competes in the Mountain West Conference. The Aggies finished with an 18-34 record this season.

Kuba will be playing in the Iowa Women's Softball League again this summer in Cedar Rapids. She will have two years of eligibility at Utah State after spending two years at Indian Hills.
