Ryan Wyant threw a five-inning no-hitter as Linn-Mar blanked Waterloo East, 13-0, in the first game of a doubleheader Wednesday night at Linn-Mar.

The Lions held on to win the nightcap, 5-4.

Wyant struck out six and walked two. He also had a pair of hits and two RBIs. Caleb Reimer had three hits for the Lions while Jackson Jacobs and Brandon Homewood had two apiece.

Ben Larson had three hits and scored two runs in Game 2 for Linn-Mar. Thomas Niemeyer also had two hits and Wyant drove home a pair with a third-inning double.

Andrew Gassmann picked up the win in relief. Michael Bogert got out of a jam in the seventh to record the save. The Lions are 11-16 overall, 6-10 in the MVC.
