Mikaela Lengwin broke the school record in 1-meter diving Tuesday night as the Linn-Mar Lions dunked Williamsburg, 142-40, in a dual swimming meet at the Linn-Mar Aquatic Center.

Lengwin finished with 306.00 points for her sequence of six dives, snapping the old school mark of 262.80 set by Sam Wagner in 2011. Alyssa Deuso of Linn-Mar placed second Tuesday with 275.35 points, also topping the old record.

Lengwin's score of 306.00 is the third-best performance in the state this season.

Linn-Mar won 11 of 12 events.
