

Jenks wins Wendy's High School Heisman

Written by Metro Sports Report

Monday, 09 November 2015 12:30 - Last Updated Monday, 22 February 2016 13:45

Stephanie Jenks of Linn-Mar is the winner of the 2015 Wendy's High School Heisman Award for Iowa.

The award has been presented since 1994 in partnership with the Heisman Memorial Trophy in college football and honors learning, performing and leading in the classroom, athletics and community.

Jenks is the top distance runner in Iowa. She swept the 800, 1,500 and 3,000-meter runs at the 2015 Drake Relays and the 2015 state meet. She has won eight titles at Drake during her career and eight at state.

Jenks, a senior, is a 4.0 student and has committed to Cal-Berkeley for college.