

Prairie wins pool at Waterloo

Written by Metro Sports Report
Friday, 19 December 2014 23:12 -

WATERLOO – The Cedar Rapids Prairie wrestling team won Pool D in the Battle of Waterloo on Friday at Young Arena.

Linn-Mar took fifth place in Pool B.

The Prairie Hawks beat Nashua-Plainfield 81-0, beat Clear Lake 50-15 and beat Pleasant Valley 55-15.

Morgan Hood (152 pounds) and Nick Hogan (170) each had three pins for Prairie, which will face Independence on Saturday in the championship bracket.

The Lions lost to Don Bosco 48-25, beat Waterloo Columbus 56-18, and beat Denver-Tripoli 48-33.

Shea Hartzler had three pins at 170 for Linn-Mar, Alex Streicher had a pin and two decisions at 132, and Manny Jeffery had two pins at 160.